

Master Class on Language-Culture Documentation and Phonetic-Phonological Research

9 September 2022

This one-day Master Class discusses theory and practices in language and culture documentation, field-based linguistic research, local capacity-building and community engagement in language-culture maintenance. We focus on common practical, technical and linguistic issues in phonetic-phonological research. In addition, we provide tips in grant writing to support documentation efforts.

Program;

- 09:00-10:15 An overview of language-culture documentation and community engagement: theory and practice (Wayan Arka)
- 10:30-11:30 An overview of field-based phonetic-phonological research (Yishan Huang)

BREAK: FRIDAY PRAYERS

- 13:30-14:30 Sociophonetics (Yishan Huang)
- 14:30-15:30 Phonetics-Phonology (Yishan Huang)
- 15:30-15:45 BREAK
- 15:45-16:30 Grant-writing and support (Wayan Arka)